From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated June 14.

The Journal of the Imperial Army in Italy, commanded by Count Staremberg, May 28.

ON the 21st of May, The Head Quarters were remov'd from Quingentoli to Revere, on advice that the Enemy was moving towards Ponte Molino, and ſeem'd to have a Deſign to attack that Poſt; A Detachment of them advanc'd to take a View of it on the 22d, on which occaſion the Officer that commanded the Party was kill'd. On the 23d another Party of the Enemies, detach'd from the Body encamp'd on the other ſide of the Secchia over againſt Quiſtello, came to take a View of the Works of the Imperialiſts, but one of their Officers, advancing too near, was kill'd, with 2 other Perſons that accompanied him; and by the Circumſtances of his Interment, and the buſtling of the Enemies in their Camp, 'tis preſum'd he muſt have been a Man of conſiderable Quality. On the 24th, A Party of Huſſars was order'd to make an Excurſion; The Enemy attempted nothing againſt us that day, tho' they beat a March; but we learn they made a Forrage towards Legnano; and 'tis ſaid the Venetians not only cannnonaded their Troops, but are drawing a Line from Legnano to a Moraſs near the Tartaro. On the 25th, The Enemy attempted in the Night-time to take Poſt near Ponte Molino; but General Staremberg having caus'd a Battery to be made on that ſide, the Enemies were ſo well receiv'd, that in the Morning they were retir'd out of ſight. On the 26th, The Enemy attempted unſucceſsfully to intrench themſelves in 2 other Places. In the Night a Battery was rais'd at Quiſtello, to fire athwart the Enemies Camp, which was done ſucceſsfully, and the Enemies were oblig'd to draw off to a greater diſtance. A Battery is likewiſe rais'd at the Outlet of the Secchia, over againſt the Place where the Prince de Vaudemont is encamp'd. General Vaubonne and Collonel Diack were detach'd with 1500 Men and 500 Horſe, to go to meet the Heydukes, and Horſes for remounting the Cavalry, which are coming from Tyrol. On the 27th, The Battery rais'd at the Mouth of the Secchia ſucceeded as luckily as that of Quiſtello, and oblig'd the Enemy to remove their Camp. We have Advice that General Vaubonne has paſs'd the Po very happily, and continues his March with the Troops he commands, without having met with any Oppoſition from the Enemies: Who being enter'd into the Veroneze to endeavour to cut off the Communication of the Imperialiſts with the Country of Tyrol, General Staremberg has chang'd the Head Quarters, to be in a Poſture for making Head againſt the Enemy on all ſides, and has given ſuch good Orders, that we are in a Condition to receive them vigorouſly.

Trent, May 29. To-day went from hence for the Imperial Army in Italy 4 Companies of Tolpatzes making 650 Men. Other 5 ſuch Companies of them have already paſs'd Saltzburg on their way hither, and will be follow'd by ſo many more ſtill as will make up 3 compleat Regiments; beſides Horſe for recruiting the Cavalry. 100 Draught Horſes for the Service of the Artillery are juſt now arriv'd. Tomorrow 500 of our Soldiers will be ſent towards Roveredo, many of which will be provided with Shovels and Pickaxes, being to ſerve as Pioneers in the Army of Count Staremberg.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 14.

Legnano, May 30. The Prince de Vaudemont, Governour General of the Milaneze, arriving ſome days ago at San Benedetto, a great Council of War was held by the Duke of Vendome, at which the ſaid Prince and other General Officers aſſiſted. On the 20th, Part of the Army of the 2 Crowns paſs'd the Mincio near Virgiliana, where they were met by a Convoy ſent from Mantua with 18 Pieces of Braſs Cnnnon, and 150 Waggons and 500 Mules, loaded with 18 Copper Pontons, and a great quantity of Planks and Ammunition of all ſorts. On the 23d they enter'd into the Veroneze on the Territories of the Venetians, where they are extended over a large Tract of Ground. On the 28th, The Duke de Vendome ſent away a Detachment of 10000 Horſe and Foot, which enter'd yeſterday into the Province of Ferrara belonging to the Pope. The Infantry is canton'd on the Lands of the Marqueſs de Bentivoglio, the Cavalry in the Village of Zelo, and we are inform'd they are cutting the Corn and Forrage in that Neighbourhood. The Duke of Vendome is march'd with the reſt of his Army to attack Ponte Molino, in which is an Imperial Garriſon; he has left 3 other Bodies of Troops, one at San Benedetto commanded by the Prince de Vaudemont, another on the Secchia under the Grand Prior of France, and the third in the Modeneze under Count Albergotti. 7000 Imperialiſts are come to Oſtiglia from Mirandola and Finale in the Modeneze.

Sanguineto, May 24. The Caſtle of this Place, garriſon'd by 50 Venetian Soldiers, after a little Debate, but without a Blow, is ſurrender'd into the Hands of the French; who are baking Bread, and will march on the 27th to Legnano, thence to Carpi, and ſo to Zelo, and then over the Tartaro, becauſe the Moraſſes that lye betwixt this Place and Oſtiglia, hinder the French from marching directly thither. The French will leave a Garriſon here.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 14.

Venice, June 2. Our Advices from the Armies in Lombardy, tell us, that the French are divided into ſeveral Bodies, with the largeſt of which the Duke de Vendome is march'd to Sanguineto and other Places in the Veroneze; that on the 29th ult. in the Morning 10000 French moſt Cavalry with Copper-Pontons, Planks, &c. march'd towards Carpi, and from thence are to go into the Ferrareze: Theſe Motions of the French have oblig'd the Imperialiſts to ſtir likewiſe, On the 27th Ult. 800 Germans came to Trecenta in the Ferrareze, and poſſeſs'd themſelves of the Paſs over the River Tartaro: Part of them advanc'd further to Bruchella, and ſecur'd the Paſs over the Malopera; and 'tis ſaid a Body of Imperialiſts are following them to oppoſe the French on that Side. Prince Eugene of Savoy is ſhortly expected in the Imperial Camp, whither Count Trautmanſdorf mansdorf, General of the Horſe is gone from hence.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 16.

Venice, June 2. On the 28th Ult. an Officer from the Imperial Army arriv'd here, and reports, that on the 23d the Grand Prior of France, Brother of the Duke de Vendome, with an Adjutant, 2 Lacqueys, and 14 Officers, came along the Bank of the River Secchia over againſt Quiſtello, 24 German Grenadiers that lay in Ambuſh fir'd briskly at them; The Grand Prior and his Horſe were ſeen to fall, the reſt eſcap'd.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated June 16.

Nuremberg, June 8. The Directors of the Circle of Franconia are gone from hence to Kizingen; we expect to be beſieg'd within 3 or 4 Days: The Marſhal de Villars is marching with his Army on this ſide the Danube, on which River ſome of his Infantry is embark'd: On the 5th he encamp'd at Elckingen, and from thence mov'd towards Gingen: The Count de Stirum is watchful of his Motions, and on the 5th was at Geppingen: That General has detach'd Count Palfi hither with 1200 Horſe, which with the Troops of the Circles and the Daniſh Regiments, whereof 1000 Horſe came hither yeſterday, will make a Body of 14000 Men. Our Burghers have all taken an Oath to continue firm to the Common Cauſe, and we are full of Hopes to ſee things take a better Turn than we at firſt Allarm apprehended.

Landau, June 8. On the 4th, The Count de Friſe, having had a Conference the Day before with Prince Louis of Baden, came to Lauterburg. The ſame Day he had Intelligence that the Enemy was at Herth within 2 Leagues of Haguenau. Whereupon the Out-Guards were drawn off, and Directions given for the Artillery and Ammunition to be ſent hither. On the 5th the Artillery and Ammunition being imbark'd to be brought hither by Water, the Count de Friſe came hither from Lauterburg, and the Infantry mov'd this Way. On the 6th the Artillery and Ammunition arriv'd here, as did alſo the Infantry, ſo that this Fortreſs has a Garriſon ſufficiently ſtrong. On the 7th 4 Deſerters brought Advice that the Enemy has 30 Battallions.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated June 16.

Frankfort, June 10. Prince Louis of Baden is decamp'd from Buhl with 5 Regiments of Horſe and 6 Battallions, and march'd to joyn Count Stirum; leaving the reſt of his Troops to be commanded by General Thungen, who is mov'd lower down the Rhine, and has form'd a Camp over againſt Fort Louis.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 14.

Bolduc, June 14. Yeſterday Morning early, the Duke of Grafton, Major General Ingoldsby and Brigadier Frederick Hamilton, with 140 Engliſh Officers and 6 or 700 Recruits, ſet out from hence, to go to the Grand Army encamp'd at Hanneff.

Hague, June 14. My Lord Cuts goes hence this Evening for Bolduc, from thence to go with a Convoy to the grand Army. General Obdam will in a day or 2 go in a Yatch to Bergen op Zoom; and with him General Slangenberg. They write from Bergen op Zoom that more Troops arrive daily, that the Bridge which is laying over the Schelde near Lillo is as good as ready, and that all Preparations for ſome important Enterprize, which is ſtill kept ſecret, are in great forwardneſs.

From the Army of the Allies commanded by the Duke of Marlborough encamp'd at Hanneff, June 14. The Enemies continue in their former Camp, and have made ſeveral Batteries in the Village of Tourine to cover their Front. On the 12th the Right Wing of our Army forrag'd, being guarded by 1000 Horſe commanded by the Count de Noyelles and Brigadier Wood, and 1500 Foot by Brigadier Withers. Our Forragers work'd in ſight of the Enemy's Camp, without the leaſt Moleſtation. Laſt Night a Party of about 50 Horſe and Dragoons, were order'd to Patroll between the Enemies Camp and ours; and early this Morning had a Rencounter with a ſmall Party of French Horſe, of whom they kill'd 2, and took 10, 1 of them a Cornet, with their Horſes.

Falmouth, June 7. This day came certain Advice from Fowey and Lowe, that 5 ſmall French Men of War have been ſeen off thoſe Places for ſeveral days paſt. One of them took a Fiſhing Boat on the 5th off of Fowey.
